ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Idaho Animal Rescue Network (IARN) is 100% volunteer-run, with no paid employees. The organization specializes in animal cruelty, neglect, and complex medical cases. Founded in 2019, IARN works alongside law enforcement, veterinarians, and other agencies to help animals reach safety and recover.

Through rehabilitation, foster care, adoption, community resources, and advocacy, IARN works to improve animal welfare and keep pets with the people who love them.

PROGRAMS AND WORK

- Cruelty and neglect response alongside law enforcement and other agencies
- Medical care, rehabilitation, foster care, and adoption
- Pet food pantries in Lewiston, Kamiah, Lapwai, and on the Nez Perce Reservation
- Spay and neuter support, plus assistance with unexpected puppy litters
- Animal welfare education, community outreach, and advocacy
